DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 2 and 6 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claims 2 and 6 recite the limitation "the correction factor" in claim 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by El-Tahan et al. (US 6,611,737).

Regarding claim 1, El-Tahan et al. teaches determining a progression of the position of a reference object passing through a process (column 3, lines 24-27); forming differences of positions between the object and the reference object (column 8, lines 38-39); forming error position terms from the differences (column 8, lines 38-39); and weighting the error position terms with at least one correction factor (see Table 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims and amended to overcome the above-noted objections.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

For reasons for allowance for claims 2-5, please see previous office action.

The primary reason for the indication of allowability of claim 6 is the inclusion of the limitation that the object is a first option, the reference object is a second option, the position is an early exercise price, the error position terms are error price terms, and the correction factor is a constant number. It is this limitation in the claimed combination that has not been found, taught, or suggested by the prior art that makes the claims allowable.
